I penned this little masterpiece to be a blessing to women around the globe. Short in pages, but delivering a profound message, I hope that this epistle will not only bless, but transform your life as the words begin to pierce your soul sinking deep into your spirit. For His glory, today and forever.

Time with God

Spending Time with God is the most important part of my life. My life is a never-ending list of things to do which consists of family life, my husband, my children, (I come in somewhere, probably not in between, but at the bottom of the list; that's how it is and that's how it's always been) my home-based businesses, Cyndi's Light Work Designs, God's Virtuous Women Entrepreneurs and Beauty and the Face, LLC. (A Boyer Acquisition Company). You may ask yourself the question, "How in the world does she run all of those businesses with a family and still find time to serve the Lord thy God?"

The answer is easy. I spend Quality-Quiet Time with God. It is how I start my day and it is how I end my day.

I start my day spending Time with God in the comfort of my blessed, warm and cozy bed; blessed because of God's eternal presence in my life and my home; warm and cozy because God's blessings are upon me.

I start each and every morning sending praises to God. I praise Him for His goodness, for His faithfulness and for His everlasting and unconditional love. I praise Him for His mighty acts and I praise Him according to His excellent greatness. The Lord is great and greatly to be praised. His greatness is unsearchable. I praise the Lord throughout my day.

As I prepare to begin my work day, I ask the Lord to cover me in wisdom and knowledge to discern the things that I do not know. There are a lot of questions that I ask myself when it comes to my businesses and when I don't have the answers, of course, I go to the One Who does have the answers. Dear God, should I incorporate this into my business today; will it be a help to someone else or just to me. If it is a help just to me, it will eventually be a help to someone else. Thank You Father.

Not all of the businesses I have listed above are from the Lord. I even question if any of them are from Him, but because of the close and personal relationship that He and I share, I have to say yes, my businesses are from Him and I say it with complete certainty. How do I know this, you may ask. For me, it's easy. My Father has blessed me with special gifts, but He didn't stop there; He also blessed me with the ability to utilize each gift. Some of my gifts include my typing and transcribing skills which are two of the greatest gifts that came from the throne of grace. He also gave me the gift of writing and design. I use each and every one of His amazing gifts to glorify Him.

When I spend Quality-Quiet Time with God I open my mind and my heart to receive His instruction for my life. I talk to my Father. No, I don't use big words. I don't use repetitions. I just talk. I talk to Him as if I am talking to a very close friend. I talk to Him because He is my best friend. If I am in need of something that I know He can supply, I go to God in prayer, I ask and then I eagerly watch and patiently wait for Him to answer. If He answers no, I thank Him. If He answers yes, I thank Him and if he says, Cynthia, you have to wait, I praise Him.

When it comes to my businesses I go to God in prayer telling Him whatever it is that is weighing on my heart concerning my businesses and my life in general. God listens. God cares. He answers my prayers.

From time to time, there are other things that I want to do, but am not sure if it is God's Will and then I ask myself, does this fit into God's plan for my life. So I ask Him, Dear God, is this Your Will for me? I then ask myself, is He going to direct and guide my footsteps to do this thing that has suddenly popped into my mind. Now, if it is in my heart, and it is burning up within me, then I know that I must proceed and work out the details to accomplish this goal, because if it is in my heart, then I know that it is from God. If I have to question whether or not that it is from God, or if I feel the least bit nervous about it and am not sure whether to move forward with this goal, then I know that it is not from God and I have to let it go. I have to surrender it right then and there. It could be the best money making business in the world, but if it is not from God, it is not of God; therefore it is not for me. I cannot afford to block God's blessings for my family by stepping out of His Will for my life. I will always obey and honor Him.

I will continue to spend Time with God. There is no other way to live my life. He has the power to do great things. He has the power to bless me abundantly and He does. He gives me the power to do great things to honor, magnify, worship, praise and glorify Him. He is the reason my life is so blessed. Even through the tests, trials, persecution, and hardships I have endured, I am blessed. I thank Him and I praise Him with the loud sounding cymbals, yesterday, today and forever.

As my day comes to a quiet close, I praise and bless the Lord in peace and in love. I magnify His great and powerful name. I thank Him for directing my paths and for illumining my steps. I thank God for giving me the wisdom to create, design, write, type and transcribe. I thank God for blessing me to be a real blessing to those in need.

Time with God, I praise Him and I bless Him.

In Jesus' Name.

Amen.
